P2: Oh! Sorry, no, my character doesn't have an extra pair of eyes.

P1: Okay, your turn.

P2: Hmm, does your character have a fife?

P1: Like, the number five?

P2: No, like the instrument fife...kind of like a flute?

P1: Ooooooh, no, my character doesn't have a fife.

P2: Okay, your turn!

P2: Sorry, bus or buzz?

P1: Buzz, like the sound a fly or bee makes!

P2: Got it - no, I have a bus but not one that goes buzz.

P1: Okay so you have a character with a bus, no eyes or a buzz.

P2: Yes. Does your character have a medal?

P1: A medal?

P2: Yes, a medal.

P1: Yes, my character has a medal! (1)

P2: Okay, so far I know your character has a medal. Your turn!

P1: Hmm...does your character have ice?

P2: Yes! I already mentioned that I have ice. (2)

P1: Great! Okay, So now I know your three items, I think! Do you have a bus, a price and ice?

P2: Yes, that's correct! I think I've only got one of your three items... A medal, but not a bus or something that goes buzz.

P1: I win!

P2: Can I finish guessing your items?

P1: Yes, for sure! So far you've only guessed one, medal.

P2: Hmm, okay. Is your character with a writer?

P1: Uh, a rider? Like a rider on a horse?

P2: No, like a writer, someone writing books?

P1: Oh, yes! Like an author, yes my card has a writer. (2)

P2: Okay, now I know you have a medal and a writer on your card. Hmm, is your character holding metal?

P1: What? Didn't you figure out that my character has a medal?

P2: No, I mean, metal, like copper metal.

P1: Oh! Yes, they are holding metal! (3)

P2: Great! That means your character is holding a medal, a writer, and metal?

P1: Yes, you got it.
